In cooperation with the Ministry of Youth, the Open Air Cinema took place in Ankara where the participants were enthusiastic and nostalgic for old Turkish films. The objective of this event was the active participation of young people in outdoor events and to get more information about Turkish culture. This outside activity showed once again that young people have more need for real communication than virtual. The seating area opened 1 hour before the movie experience started. S&G was part of this impressive activity, where S&G Association hopes that in the future will create further cooperation in terms of outdoor activities.

The Istanbul Branch of the Informatics Association of Türkiye (TBD) in November 2023 will organise the IT Stars 2023 Competition with the theme of “Domestic and National Project Competition”. The Informatics Association of Türkiye (TBD) is an institution that closely follows the latest developments in the field of informatics in Türkiye. Additionally, it is leading the way in the spread of the information culture. The competition is held throughout Türkiye. The competition covers the private sector, companies with R&D centers, universities, technopark and technopolis companies, non-governmental organizations (NGOs); implemented Domestic and National Project applications and project ideas from local governments. The IT Stars e-Transformation Competition is held in order to better introduce different web projects that have transformed on the Internet or moved their business structure to the Internet environment and to increase the interest in e-transformation. This competition has been independently organized by TBD Istanbul Branch since 2009. In addition, it is also one of the most respected and prestigious competitions in the industry. The competitions are promotional and important in order to encourage good examples and develop better projects. This competition will also contribute to the development of Local and National examples and high-quality applications in informatics. It is also believed that the competition will contribute to raising awareness in society about Domestic and National applications in informatics.

The 101st anniversary of the August 30 Victory was celebrated with enthusiasm in Alanya as it was in the whole country. The Joy of Victory started with the Lantern Procession Parade, which was attended by thousands of citizens, accompanied by marches and Turkish Flags. The celebrations continued with great enthusiasm with the songs of the beloved artist Koray Avcı.

The events organized by Alanya City Council and Alanya Municipality within the scope of the 101st anniversary celebrations of the 30 August Victory witnessed enthusiastic moments in Alanya. Citizens had an unforgettable Victory Day with the program that took place with the Lantern Regiment Parade and the Koray Avcı concert afterwards. Alanya District Governor Fatih Ürkmezer, Alanya Mayor Adem Murat Yücel, Alanya City Council President Nurhan Özcan, public institution representatives, chamber presidents, headmen and political party representatives and tens of thousands of citizens attended the celebration programs.

The celebration activities first started with the Lantern Procession March organized in cooperation with Alanya Municipality and Alanya City Council. Protocol members and citizens started to gather in front of the Alanya Atatürk Monument at 19.30, and started in front of the Atatürk Monument at 20.00 and marched along İskele Street accompanied by torches, marches and Turkish Flags
